TAMMY TIBBETTS

Tammy Tibbetts, a 2003 graduate of South Brunswick High School and former editor-in-chief of The Viking Vibe, is the founder of She's the First, an organization that funds scholarships for girls in low-income countries so that they can be the first in their families to graduate from high school. She's the First directly impacts students in the U.S., too, providing mentorship, leadership training, and global awareness opportunities to members of more than 115 campus chapters. As the President of She's the First, Tammy is responsible for the business of the organization, developing shared value partnerships with luminaries, philanthropists, companies, and media.

Tammy originally launched She's the First as a YouTube video campaign when she was a web editor at Hearst Magazines. As Seventeen's first-ever Social Media Editor, she had great success and was recognized on the cover of min, an industry publication, as one of the "13 under 30" rising stars in the business.

In 2013, Tammy received the People's Voice Award from Diane von Furstenberg and has been named one of Fast Company's Most Creative People in Business, TIME magazine's "30 under 30" World-Changers, one of Forbes' "30 under 30" in Education, and is recognized as one of "20 Women Changing the World" in the September 2014 issue of Marie Claire.
